OVERVIEW

Diana, Princess of Wales died on Sunday, 31 August 1997 following a car crash in Paris. There was widespread public mourning at the death of this popular figure, culminating with her funeral at Westminster Abbey on Saturday, 6 September 1997. Even after her death, however, the Princess's work lives on in the form of commemorative charities and projects set up to help those in need.

Memorial Sites

Off Site Links

A Little Bit of Heaven

A personal favorite. Here, parents can create messages complete with names, dates of birth, etc. or simply remember their child with "baby angel". You also have the option of making a link to a personal webpage. It is laid out beautifully.

Dedication Page for Twins and Higher Multiples

This is a site for babies who have died in a multiple pregnancy.

We Remember With Love

This is a memorial from the SIDS Network, and is dedicated to those babies we can only hold in our heart.

A Place to Remember's Remembrance Book

Dedicated to the memory of children lost due to miscarriage, stillbirth, or the death of a child under 3 years of age.

I'll Hold you in Heaven

A memorial site for all children who have gone to heaven.

The Smallest Angels

A memorial wall made especially for children who have died of SIDS.

"Remember, both of you, that which Amalek did to us; remember everything do not forget for the rest of your lives and pass on as a holy testament to the coming generations that the Germans killed, slaughtered and murdered us..." (from the Testament of Elkhanan Elkes, leader of the Kovno Jewish Council)

In an attempt to fulfill the wishes of those who perished, we at Yad Vashem collect the names of the victims in our Hall of Names, commemorate the events of the Shoah and the communities that were wiped out, at our memorial sites and in our museums.

In Loving Memory

CANTOR FAMILIES MEMORIAL

On the morning of September 11th, we lost more than a team. We lost family. We mourn the losses of our siblings, our best friends, and our partners. We cannot imagine work or life without them nor their many unique qualities and characteristics. They have enriched our lives immeasurably, and in us, their spirits shall live on.

This Web site was created for the Cantor family of companies and all employees of eSpeed, Inc., Cantor Fitzgerald, L.P., and TradeSpark, L.P., to commemorate all those lost in the World Trade Center tragedy. It is dedicated to preserving and celebrating the memory of our families, our friends, and our colleagues. Please join with us now in paying tribute to those who have so deeply touched - and continue to touch - our lives.

Chris Edward Allingham

Date of Birth: October 6, 1964

Position: Municipal Bond broker

Christopher Edward Allingham was only 36 years old, but he had already spent half of his life working on Wall St. After graduating St John Vianney H.S. in Holmdel N.J., Chris went on to St. Peter's College in Jersey City, NJ. After class, Chris would take the PATH to the World Trade Center and walk down to Broadway where he sold the N.Y. Post everyday regardless of the weather. His work ethic and glowing personality caught the eye of a regular customer who offered Chris his first job brokering Municipal Bonds.

Chris was the most positive, easy going, non-judgmental and genuinely happy person that I have ever encountered in my life. He never had a bad word to say about anyone and he would give you the shirt off of his back in a heartbeat. He was passionate about the Giants, loved his work, but most of all he loved his wife Donna and his two boys, Christopher and Kyle.

I was fortunate enough to spend Saturday, September 8 with Chris at my brother Bill's house. We spent our day in typical Chris Allingham style: drinking Buds, barbequing and playing with all of the kids. I will cherish that day for the rest of my life.

If we all could live by his way, the world would truly be a better place. Live each day as if it's your last. Always be happy no matter the hand that you are dealt. Spend the time most with those who you love. Don't pass judgment without first looking at yourself.

I can only hope that I can be half of the man that you were, and live the rest of my life the way that you lived yours. I never got a chance to thank you for being such a good friend and brother so I keep wishing for 5 more minutes with you. I miss you terribly and will think of you everyday until we meet again.

I love you,

Your brother JJ Allingham

JJ Allingham, Brother

I first met Chris when I started my summer internship at Titus & Donnelly almost 10 years ago. He was the first person there who sat me down and put me on the phone. He was the only person in a room of 50 who wanted me to act like a broker and he treated me like one. When I started at Titus full-time, I sat right next to Chris until he moved on to Muni-Partners. A part of me thought our relationship would end there but it never did. Chris was the type of guy to make sure he always saw his friends, even if it was to meet for a quick smoke outside his building. I remember going with Chris often for a quick bite to eat and a few beers before we would take the train home from Hoboken. He always had a smile on his face that no matter how bad of a mood you were in, he could take you out of it. Chris just had that way about him. We had many good times together, Giant games, my wedding, but the times I will miss the most are the 5 minute conversations we used to have outside our building just to get a break from the day. Thanks for always looking out for me buddy. Tim

The Virtual Wall is a commemorative website created to extend the legacy of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. It allows families, friends and veterans to post photo, text and audio remembrances to those who lost their lives in the war or remain missing in action.

The Virtual Wall features more than 50,000 messages, anecdotes and photographs and provides visitors with the ability to print digital name rubbings similar to those at The Wall in Washington, D.C. The Memorial Fund encourages you to post remembrances for friends and loved ones whose names are inscribed on the Memorial to remember and honor each and every one of those who served in the Vietnam War and to expand this digital legacy project.

On November 10, 1998, The Virtual Wall was launched during a White House ceremony hosted by Vietnam veteran and then-Vice President Al Gore. The Memorial Fund and Winstar Communications Inc. created the website. From Spring 2001-Summer 2003, Soza and Company, Ltd. maintained the site and helped underwrite its hosting.

Through this interactive website, the healing power and emotional impact of The Wall now is extended to millions of more people through the Internet. For veterans, family, friends and others who are unable to travel to the nation's capital, the site offers an opportunity to remember and honor the more than 58,000 men and women whose names are inscribed on the Memorial.

Posted for: TED B HALLENBECK:

Ted lived in my apartment complex at 32 Denton Boulevard. The first date I had with Ted he was showing off his new white sports jacket. We went to McGuire's Pub for dinner in Pensacola and I burned his jacket with a cigarette. Needless to say, he was not happy. I was intrigued with Ted's "clap on, clap off" lights and music in his apartment and always thought that was his way of luring chicks to his bedroom. We had some great parties back when and I always enjoyed walking Ted's dogs on the beach with him. Ted was a heck of a nice guy and is in my thoughts and prayers always.
